

Home Study Agencies with Missing Post Placement Reports for Russian Adoptions

Families currently in process of a Russian adoption:

Please be aware that the Russian Ministry of Education and Science has just sent a letter each region with a list of Home Study Providers who have not submitted required Post Placements Reports. The missing reports would be mainly from 'independent adoptions', adoptions complete with a non-accredited placing agency, or closed placing agencies.

The Russian MOE has recommended that regions not accept future post placement commitments from these home study agencies. Post placement commitments are part of a Russian dossier. If your homestudy agency is on the list, it may affect your pending adoption even if you are working with a placing agency that has a Russian Permit for Adoption Activity.

If your Homestudy provider is listed below, it is possible your homestudy will not be accepted by the region, or by the judge at court. You should speak to your placing agency for advice, and your homestudy agency to see if they are taking steps to provide the missing reports. You may need to locate another homestudy agency to complete your adoption.

The official letter from the MOE to the regional databank operators is written in Russian and located here:

<http://www.usynovite.ru/international/ru/info/160209/>

The official list of homestudy agencies who have missing Post Placement Reports, written in English, is here:

<http://www.usynovite.ru/f/documents/federal/regulations/170209/prilogenie.doc>

We have taken the official list, standardized the state to the 2 letter abbreviation, transliterated the agencies listed in Russian and created a list of homestudy agencies, organized by state, with minor corrections. There are numerous typos transferred from the source document, if you are uncertain, you may contact us.

Please note: PEAR did not create this list; we only provided this organized listing. Homestudy Providers should contact the Russian Consulate to determine why they are included on the list.
